Pediatric Stroke can be frightening...
1 in 4,000 babies will suffer a stroke before their first birthday, and many times before birth.

Some common signs of Pediatric Stroke:
* Use of only one hand when playing or eating
* Dragging one foot or walking on toes with one foot
* Weakness on one side of the body

If you see any of these signs, contact your doctor or your state's early intervention program for assistance.
For more information: www.chasa.org

Pediatric Stroke can be frightening...
1 in 4,000 babies will suffer a stroke before their first birthday, and many times before birth.

Some common signs of Pediatric Stroke:
* Use of only one hand when playing or eating
* Dragging one foot or walking on toes with one foot
* Weakness on one side of the body

If you see any of these signs, contact your doctor or your state's early intervention program for assistance.
For more information: www.chasa.org

Pediatric Stroke can be frightening...
1 in 4,000 babies will suffer a stroke before their first birthday, and many times before birth.

Some common signs of Pediatric Stroke:
* Use of only one hand when playing or eating
* Dragging one foot or walking on toes with one foot
* Weakness on one side of the body

If you see any of these signs, contact your doctor or your state's early intervention program for assistance.
For more information: www.chasa.org

Pediatric Stroke can be frightening...
1 in 4,000 babies will suffer a stroke before their first birthday, and many times before birth.

Some common signs of Pediatric Stroke:
* Use of only one hand when playing or eating
* Dragging one foot or walking on toes with one foot
* Weakness on one side of the body

If you see any of these signs, contact your doctor or your state's early intervention program for assistance.
For more information: www.chasa.org